Current Events

UVIC THEATRE PRESENTS "INDIANS"

John Krich is directing the production of Arthur Kopit's "Indians" which begins its run at the Phoenix Theatre on November 12 at 8 p.m. The play combines the jaded qualities of a circus, Wild West show and vaudeville, as Buffalo Bill relives his "triumphs" and seeks to discover where he went wrong. Tickets go on sale at the Phoenix box office (phone 477-4821) on November 5th. General admission $2, students $1 from Sunday through Thursday. Don't miss it.

ALUMNI BALL

Another reminder about the Alumni Ball to be held November 20 in the Commons Block Dining Room. The invitations should be out this week.

FOLKDANCING CLUB

Everyone is welcome to attend the meetings of the Folkdancing Club in the SUB Upper Lounge every Tuesday at 8 p.m. No prior knowledge or skill is required, just enthusiasm.

BABYSITTING

If you are in need of babysitting help, the residence girls are ready to assist. Contact Miss Lorna Barr, Senior Don, Craigdarroch, at 477-4312, or Miss Rosalyn Helem, Senior Don, Lansdowne, at 477-6232.

TRIUMF MEETING

UVic will host the November meeting on November 9 of the Operating Committee of the TRIUMF Project. Members from U. of A., SFU, UBC, and Lyle Robertson (Physics) will attend.

JOGGERS WANTED

Any joggers on campus who are interested in cross country events should turn out at the rugger field between 12 and 12:30 each weekday, where Dr. Derek Ellis will be happy to encourage and help them.

BEQUEST TO UNIVERSITY STAFF

The late Carl Weiselberger has bequeathed all his papers and writings, plus $3,000, to Dr. Herta Hartmanshenn and Prof. Frederick Kriegel (German) and the University, in order that a manuscript may be prepared and published. Mr. Weiselberger was a well known drama and art critic, as well as novelist, in his native Austria. After emigrating to Canada, he worked for several years as music and art critic for the Ottawa Citizen. Until his death this year, he lived in Victoria.
